

WELSHPOOL TOWN COUNCIL DAY CENTRE RENAMING CEREMONY

The Mayor was there to oversee proceedings as the relations of the late Cllr Ann Holloway unveiled the new Day Centre name. The centre is now to be known as the Ann Holloway Centre. Rev Sue Lawler blessed the Centre to conclude proceedings after which there were scones and tea.

The Day Centre was taken over by Welshpool Town Council in July 2015 and has since developed the centre with a new conservatory (made possible by a large donation from Mrs M O'Hare) and main room and entrance redecorations. There is soon to be a new garden for residents as well.

The Centre is open Monday to Friday and there are places available for private Clients as well as those placed by Powys County Council. There is fresh food every day cooked in our great kitchen.

Anyone wishes to see around the Centre should call Wendy on 01938 554458.
